PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

NOW COMES, Plaintiff, JESUS RAMON NINO, in the above-styled and numbered cause and files this Original Complaint, complaining of and about JUAN MANUEL CERVANTES REYNA D/B/A TRANSPORTES JUMA and AGUSTIN ROBLES PACHUCA, Defendants, and in support thereof would respectfully show unto this Court as follows:

Parties and Service

1.1 Plaintiff, Jesus Ramon Nino, is an individual domiciled in Laredo, Webb County, Texas, and brings this action individually.

1.2 Defendant, Agustin Robles Pachuca, is an individual domiciled in Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, and may be served with process by serving the Chairman of the Texas Transportation Commission, J. Bruce Bugg, Jr., at 125 E. 11th Street, Austin, Texas 78701, who can forward process to Agustin Robles Pachuca at the following address: Ave. Rio Rhin 706 Col. Art Cortes, Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico 88177.

1.3 Defendant, Juan Manuel Cervantes Reyna d/b/a Transportes Juma, is a foreign motor carrier operation believed to be operating under said assumed name, whose principal office is located in Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico. Service of process may be effectuated by serving the Chairman of the Texas Transportation Commission, J. Bruce Bugg, Jr., at 125 E. 11th Street, Austin, Texas 78701, who can forward process to Juan Manuel Cervantes Reyna d/b/a Transportes Juma at the following address: Privado Zaragoza 4513, San Rafael, Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico 88200. Plaintiff further requests service of process by registered mail on this Defendant at its mailing address: P.O. Box 420596, Laredo, Texas 78042.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2.1 This Court has jurisdiction over the lawsuit under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) because Plaintiffs and Defendants are citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, excluding interest and costs.

2.2 Venue is proper in this matter pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because the cause of action arose within the Southern District of Texas, Laredo Division.

2.3 Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §1402(b) because the acts and omissions complained of occurred in this district.

3. Factual Background

3.1 On or about March 9, 2023, at approximately 6:38 p.m., Mr. Nino was the restrained driver of a 2021 Chevrolet Colorado truck traveling west in a reasonable and prudent manner in the 8400 block of Milo Road in Laredo, Webb County, Texas. Mr. Nino was stationary while waiting for traffic ahead of him. Defendant Pachuca was operating a 1996 Freighliner tractor truck traveling east. Defendant Pachuca attempted to execute a left turn directly behind Mr. Nino's vehicle. While executing his left turn, Defendant Pachuca suddenly and unexpectedly collided with the rear driver's side of Mr. Nino's vehicle. Moreover, Defendant Pachuca's tractor truck hooked onto Mr. Nino's rear bumper and dragged Mr. Nino's vehicle before Defendant Pachuca brought his tractor to a stop.

3.2 Defendant Pachuca was operating a 1996 Freightliner tractor truck while in the course, scope, and in furtherance of his employment with Defendant Juma. The crash occurred when Defendant Pachuca suddenly and unexpectedly turned left when unsafe and forcefully collided with Mr. Nino's vehicle.

3.3 As a direct and proximate result of the collision, Plaintiff suffered physical and emotional injuries and damages. As a result of the physical and emotional injuries, Plaintiff incurred reasonable and necessary medical expenses. Plaintiff will, in all probability, continue to incur reasonable and medical expenses well into the future.

3.4 At the time of the collision, Defendant Pachuca was an employee of Defendant Juma and was acting within the course, scope, and in furtherance of his employment. Pleading further and in the alternative, Defendant Pachuca was a statutory employee under the Statutory Employee Doctrine. In this regard, and interstate motor carrier such as Defendant Juma is required to assume full direction and control of the vehicles that it leases, and the drivers that it hires or dispatches, pursuant to 49.U.S.C.A. §14102(a) (1997). As a result, Defendant Juma had exclusive control of the tractor-trailer combination operated by Defendant Pachuca, and such carriers are deemed to have assumed complete responsibility for the operation of the commercial motor vehicle at all relevant times, in accordance with 49 C.F.R. §§376.11-.12 (2000). Thus, Defendant Juma is vicariously liable, as a matter of law under the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations for any and all negligent acts and/or omissions committed by Defendant Pachuca.

3.5 Alternatively, Defendant Juma is vicariously liable with respect to all negligent acts and/or omissions by Defendant Pachuca under traditional common-law doctrines of the master-servant relationship and respondeat superior.

Cause of Action Against Defendant Pachuca

4.1 Defendant Juma is responsible for the actions of its employee, Defendant Pachuca, who was acting within the course and scope of his employment.

4.2 The collision and resulting injuries and damages were proximately caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of Defendant Juma's employee in one or more of the following particulars:

- 4.2.1 In that Defendant Pachuca failed to keep a proper lookout for Plaintiff's safety that would have been maintained by a person of ordinary prudence under the same or similar circumstances;
- 4.2.2 In that Defendant Pachuca turned left when unsafe;
- 4.2.3 In that Defendant Pachuca failed to keep a proper lookout in order to avoid colliding with other vehicles, specifically, with Plaintiff's motor vehicle, as done by a person of ordinary prudence under the same or similar circumstances;
- 4.2.4 In that Defendant Pachuca failed to apply his brakes to his motor vehicle in a timely and prudent manner;
- 4.2.5 In placing Plaintiff in a position of peril due to Defendant Pachuca's lack of due care and exercise of ordinary prudence of a person of his maturity and capacity § 545.401 of the Texas Transportation Code;
- 4.2.6 In failing to take evasive action to avoid colliding with Plaintiff's vehicle;
- 4.2.7 In failing to use the tractor's horn, lights, and/or other equipment to warn Plaintiff of the impending collision;
- 4.2.8 Defendant Pachuca operated his vehicle in violation of hours of service regulation, 49 C.F.R. 395.3, and when too tired to do so safely, in violation of 49 C.F.R. 392.3;

4.2.9 Defendant Pachuca failed to properly record his duty status, in violation of 49 C.F.R. 395.8;

4.2.10 Defendant Pachuca failed to properly inspect his vehicle prior to operation, in violation of 49 C.F.R. 36.13;

4.2.11 Defendant Pachuca operated his vehicle in an unsafe condition, in violation of 49 C.F.R 396.7;

4.2.12 Defendant Pachuca failed to properly report the results of the vehicle inspections, in violation of 49 C.F.R 396.11; and/or

4.2.13 Defendant Pachuca drove a vehicle he was not qualified to operate because he did not meet the driver qualification standards of 49 C.F.R 391.21 through 49 C.F.R 391.27 and 49 C.F.R391.15.

4.3 Plaintiff's injuries were proximately caused by Defendant Pachuca's negligent, careless and reckless disregard of said legal duties.

4.4 Each of these acts and/or omissions, whether taken singularly or in any combination, constituted negligence, negligence per se, and gross negligence which proximately caused the collision and injuries and other losses as specifically set forth herein, all of which Plaintiff has suffered and which Plaintiff will continue to suffer in the future.

4.5 The above-referenced acts and/or omissions by Defendant Pachuca constituted gross negligence and/or malice as those terms are defined in §§ 41.001(7) and 41.001(11) of the TEXAS CIVIL PRACTICE & REMEDIES CODE. Defendant Pachuca was heedless and reckless, constituting an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability and magnitude of the potential harm to others, and Defendant Pachuca was aware of the risk but nevertheless proceeded with conscious indifference to the rights, safety, and welfare of others, including Plaintiff. The above acts and/or omissions were singularly and cumulatively the proximate cause of the occurrence in question and the resulting injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

4.6 Defendant Pachuca's acts or omissions described above, when viewed objectively from his standpoint at the time of the act or omission, involved an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability of harm to Plaintiff and others.

4.7 Defendant Pachuca had actual, subjective awareness of the risk involved in the above described acts or omissions, but nevertheless proceeded with conscious indifference to the rights, safety, or welfare of Plaintiff and others.

4.8 The above acts and/or omissions were singularly and cumulatively the proximate cause of the occurrence in question and the resulting injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

Causes of Action Against Defendant Juma

5.1 Defendant Juma is liable under the doctrine of respondeat superior in that Defendant Pachuca was operating the vehicle in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Juma at the time of the collision, and Defendant Pachuca was engaged in the furtherance of Defendant Juma's business.

5.2 At the time of the occurrence of the act in question and immediately prior thereto, Defendant Pachuca was engaged in accomplishing a task for which Defendant Pachuca was employed. Thus, Plaintiff invokes the legal doctrine of respondeat superior against Defendant Juma.

5.3 Furthermore, Defendant Juma was independently negligent in one or more of the following respects:

- a. negligent hiring of Defendant Pachuca;
- b. negligent entrustment of the vehicle to Defendant Pachuca;
- c. negligent driver qualification of Defendant Pachuca;
- d. negligent training and supervision of Defendant Pachuca;
- e. negligent retention of Defendant Pachuca;
- f. negligent contracting of Defendant Pachuca; and,
- g. negligent maintenance of the subject commercial motor vehicle.

5.4 As described herein, Defendant Juma was negligent on the occasion in question and such negligence was the proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

5.5 Each of these acts and/or omissions, whether taken singularly or in any combination constitute negligence, negligence per se, gross negligence and malice which proximately caused the collision and injuries and other losses as specifically set forth herein, all of which Plaintiff suffered and which she will continue to suffer in the future, as well as the damages and other losses to Plaintiff.

5.6 The above-referenced acts and/or omissions by Defendant Juma constituted gross negligence and/or malice as those terms are defined in §§ 41.001(7) and 41.001(11) of the Texas CIVIL PRACTICE & REMEDIES CODE. Defendant Juma was heedless and reckless, and its actions constituted an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability and magnitude of the potential harm to others. Defendant was aware of the risk but nevertheless proceeded with conscious indifference to the rights, safety, and welfare of others, including Plaintiff. The above acts and/or omissions were singularly and cumulatively the proximate cause of the occurrence in question and the resulting injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

5.7 Defendant's acts or omissions described above, when viewed from the standpoint of Defendant at the time of the act or omission, involved an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability of harm to Plaintiff and others.

5.8 Defendant had actual, subjective awareness of the risk involved, but still proceeded in the indifference to the rights, safety, or welfare of Plaintiff and others.

5.9 The above acts and/or omissions were singularly and cumulatively the proximate cause of the occurrence in question and the resulting injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

Exemplary Damages

6.1 Plaintiff's injuries resulted from the Defendants' gross negligence, and therefore Plaintiff is entitled to exemplary damages under section 41.003 (a) of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code. The above-referenced acts and/or omissions by Defendants also, or alternatively, constitute malice as that term is defined in Section 41.001(7)(B) Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

6.2 Therefore, for such gross negligence and/or malice on behalf of Defendants, Plaintiff respectfully requests exemplary damages in an amount to be determined by a jury.

Damages for Jesus Ramon Nino

7.1 As a direct and proximate result of the actions of Defendants as set forth above, Plaintiff, Jesus Ramon Nino, sustained personal injuries which have resulted in losses and damages recoverable by law.

7.2 Plaintiff would respectfully request the Court to determine the amount of loss Plaintiff has incurred in the past and will incur in the future, not only from a financial standpoint, but also in terms of good health and freedom from physical and mental pain and suffering. There are certain elements of damages, provided by law, that Plaintiff is entitled to have the jury in this case separately consider to determine the sum of money for each element that will fairly and reasonably compensate Plaintiff for the injuries and damages and losses incurred and to be incurred in the future.

7.3 From the date of the incident in question until the time of trial of this case, those elements of damages to be considered separately and individually for the purposes of determining the sum of money that will fairly and reasonably compensate Plaintiff for each element are as follows:

- 7.3.1 Reasonable medical care and expenses in the past. These expenses were incurred by the Plaintiff, Jesus Ramon Nino, for the necessary care and treatment of the injuries resulting from the accident complained of herein and such charges are reasonable and were usual and customary charges for such services in Webb County, Texas;
- 7.3.2 Physical pain and suffering that the Plaintiff has suffered from the date of the incident in question to the time of trial;
- 7.3.3 The damages resulting from the physical impairment suffered by Plaintiff and the resulting inability to do those tasks and services that Plaintiff ordinarily would have been able to perform; and
- 7.3.4 The damages resulting from the mental anguish suffered by Plaintiff and the resulting inability to do those tasks and services that Plaintiff ordinarily would have been able to perform;

7.4 From the time of trial of the case, the elements of damages to be separately and individually considered which Plaintiff will sustain in the future beyond the time of trial are the following:

- 7.4.1 The reasonable value of medical expenses that will necessarily be incurred in the treatment of Plaintiff's injuries in the future beyond the time of trial;
- 7.4.2 Physical pain and suffering that the Plaintiff will suffer in the future beyond the time of trial;
- 7.4.3 The damages resulting from the physical impairment the Plaintiff will continue to suffer in the future and the resulting inability to do those tasks and services that Plaintiff ordinarily would have been able to perform in the future beyond the time of trial;
- 7.4.4 Loss of earning capacity in the past and which will, in all probability be incurred in the future; and
- 7.4.5 The mental anguish that Plaintiff will suffer in the future beyond the time of trial.

Interest on Damages

8.1 To the extent provided by law, Plaintiff further pleads for pre and post judgment interest, at the highest prevailing judgment rate allowed by law, on any damages awarded by this Court. Plaintiff pleads that if he is not allowed such pre and post judgment interest, he would not be fully compensated, and that he would be denied an opportunity to earn interest on the damages Plaintiff sustained between the time of the incident and the time of judgment.

Jury Demand

10.1 Plaintiff requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff, Jesus Ramon Nino, respectfully prays that the Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein, and that upon a final hearing of the cause, judgment be entered for the Plaintiff against Defendants, jointly and severally, for damages in an amount within the jurisdictional limits of the Court; together with pre-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed by law; post-judgment interest at the legal rate, costs of court; and such other and further relief to which the Plaintiff may be entitled at law or in equity.

Respectfully submitted,
