CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:25-cv-2820

PLAINTIFF’S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

COMES NOW Plaintiff Sierra Silvey and complains of Defendant, the United States of America and for cause of action respectfully shows as follows:

I.

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Court has jurisdiction because this action is based upon the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 13469(b); additionally, it has been more than six (6) months since a valid claim has been made, and Defendant has not provided Plaintiff with a final decision.

2. Venue is proper because the Plaintiff resides in the above judicial district and the acts and/or omissions herein complained of occurred in said judicial district.

II.

Parties

3. Plaintiff Sierra Silvey is an American citizen. Plaintiff currently resides in Katy, Texas and at all times material has been a resident citizen of the state of Texas.

4. Defendant, THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (“United States” or “Defendant”) is a governmental organization and was, at all times material hereto, the owner and operator of the motor vehicle which caused the collision on which this suit is based. Defendant may be served by delivering a copy of the Summons and the Complaint to the following persons:

III.

Nature of Action

5. On November 20, 2023, Becker Road was a public roadway in the City of Hockley, Harris County, Texas. On said date and at the time of the occurrence hereinafter complained of, Defendant, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, owned a motor vehicle which was being operated on Becker Road by an employee of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, acting within the scope of his employment with the United States Postal Service. At said time and place, Sierra Silvey, the Plaintiff, was also operating a vehicle on Becker Road. At all times material Plaintiff was in the exercise of ordinary care for his own safety. At said time and place the Defendant, by its employee, carelessly and negligently drove and operated its motor vehicle and as a direct and proximate result collided with Plaintiff's vehicle, thereby causing Plaintiff severe personal injuries.

6. The United States has waived sovereign immunity pursuant to the Federal Torts Claims Act 28 U.S.C. § 13469(b);.

IV.

Count I—Negligence

7. Defendant, by its employee, had a duty to exercise the degree of care that a reasonably prudent person driving an automobile would use to avoid harm to others under circumstances similar to those described herein. Plaintiff sustained injuries because of the negligence of Defendant, by and through its employee, when Defendant and/or its employee:

- Failed to drive in a safe manner;
- Failed to remain attentive while driving;
- Failed to avoid the collision;
- Failed to keep the vehicle under proper control;
- Failed to keep a proper lookout;
- Failed to operate the vehicle safely;
- Failed to control speed;
- Failed to drive attentively;
- Failed to remain aware of surroundings;
- Failed to change lanes when it was safe to do so; and
- Other acts so deemed negligent.

8. Each of the foregoing negligent acts and omissions, singularly or collectively, constituted negligence which proximately caused the occurrence made the basis of this cause of action and the resulting injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff.

V.

Damages

9. As a result of these occurrences, Plaintiff sustained severe injuries to his body, which resulted in physical pain, mental anguish, and other medical problems. Plaintiff will show that he has sustained severe pain, physical impairment, discomfort, mental anguish, disfigurement, and distress, and that in all reasonable probability, such physical pain, physical impairment, disfigurement, and mental anguish will continue indefinitely. Plaintiff has further suffered a loss of earnings in the past, as well as a loss of future earning capacity. Plaintiff incurred and will continue to incur pharmaceutical and medical expenses in the past and the future in connection with his injuries.

10. Plaintiff sues the United States for the full amount of his damages.

VI.

Conditions Precedent

11. Plaintiff pleads that all conditions precedent necessary to bring this suit have been performed or have occurred.

Prayer

Plaintiff prays that this citation issue and be served upon Defendant requiring that Defendant appear and answer, and that upon final hearing, Plaintiff has judgment against Defendant in a total sum in excess of the minimum jurisdictional limits of this Court, plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interests, attorneys' fees, punitive damages, all costs of Court, and all such other relief, to which he may show himself justly entitled. Plaintiff request Defendant be served pursuant to F.R.C.P. 4(d)(4) and that Defendant answer within 60 days after being served.
